Citizenship Training Camp Report

Citizenship Training Camp for student teachers is held each academic year during the third semester. The purpose of this CTC is to develop awareness and direct experience of rural life. The three days camp consists of many activities such as;

Subject oriented lectures, demonstrations, rural life realities, environmental protection awareness, preserving green villages, and use of water and other natural resources. Participants visit households in the villages and counsel families on these issues. Creating awareness of child education, and girls' education, including the Beti Bachao Beti Padoo program.

The above topics are presented through street plays, drama and co-curricular activities and jathas. Fire safety and first aid demonstrations were also organized in the camps. 2016-17 was organized at Ramkrishana Ashram near Vijayapur, 2017-18 at Torvi village, 2018-19 also at Torvi campus, 2019-20 at Sarwad village and 2020-21 at Ramkrishana Ashram near Vijayapur.
